

WHITE PROTESTANT 'CHURCH' RAISES RACIAL BAR

SOUTHERN MINISTER RAISES ISSUE

Two Women, Weeping, Leave Church After Pastor's Statement

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(Special)—“My congregation is white, and I intend to keep it so,” bluntly remarked a Christian member of the gospel.

On that rock the Rev. William S. Blackshear, southern minister of the Protestant Episcopal church of St. Matthew, Brooklyn, recently took his stand against the storm of protest, his announcement in his church Sunday that Negroes were not wanted there and that there were Negro churches in the community where they might worship.

Two Negro women are reported to have left the church weeping on Sunday morning following the unexpected announcement by Miss Emmeline Munt, West Indian maid of former Congressman Frank E. Wilson, No. 1242 Bushwick Ave., Brooklyn.

According to her statement made recently the little congregation had barely settled down into the normal Sunday morning service when the Rev. Mr. Blackshear rose to make the unusual announcements. He held a paper in his hand. He read from the paper. It was a bulletin concerning the arrangement of a let's concern the attendance of Negroes in the church. The congregation straightened in their seats. Then, according to Miss Munt, he said, “This means what it says. We do not want Negroes in this church. There are other churches of the community where they may go. We don't want them and we don't want their money.”

The Rev. Mr. Blackshear denied that he had referred to “Negro money,” and said that Miss Munt's version of his statement was “exaggerated.” He denied particularly a report that he had used the word “nigger.”

“If any one left the church during the service I was not aware of it,” he declared. “I am a southerner and I am not accustomed to seeing Negroes in white churches. I am willing to minister to Negroes when they need me and can not obtain the services of Negro clergymen. But I believe in the segregation of white from black congregations.”

The Right Rev. Ernest M. Stross, Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island, on being asked about the incident last night said “It is the policy of the Episcopal church to allow each parish to decide the question of race for itself. The church has no fixed policy. We have many Negro churches that are successful. Whether or not white people and black shall be in the same parish is up to that parish to decide.”

Asked whether Mr. Blackshear was acting within his rights, Bishop Stross said, “Certainly, if his vestry are behind him.”

The Right Rev. William T. Manning, bishop of the Diocese of New York, said last night at Mt. Desert, Me., where he is spending the summer, that he could not comment on the policy of the Episcopal

WHITE MAN HOLDS CHILD IN BOX CAR

Frantic Parents And Neighbors Find Child After 2-Hour Search

By STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The case of Frank Pierson, 58 year old white man, who was alleged to have been caught in the act of attempting to rape the little six-year old daughter of George Williams, 334 West Eighteenth street, came up for hearing before the Marion county grand jury, Tuesday.

On the morning of September 1 the child was sent on an errand by her father to a nearby grocery store about a block and a half away from the Williams home.

According to Mr. Williams, this child was gone for more than an hour before her failure to return was noticed.

Dispatching his eight year old son in search of his little sister, Mr. Williams was alarmed to learn from the boy upon the latter's return immediately after that his sister was not at the store nor seen anywhere in the neighborhood.

This naturally led to the father and mother taking up the trail on a hunt for the missing child.

In the meanwhile, the alarm was sounded and neighbors joined in the search.

Every nook and corner in the neighborhood, according to Mr. Williams, was looked into by the frantic parents and excited neighbors without a trace of the child being discovered. “Alas, by a mere chance,” Mr. Williams said, “just at the point of becoming discouraged, I happened to glance into a box car at LaFayette and Eighteenth streets and there in amazement discovered my baby we had been looking for, partly unclad and sitting on the knee of the 58 year old white man who had his arms around her.”

According to Williams, the white man, when discovered was in an incriminating position.

The Right Rev. Ernest M. Stross, Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island, on being asked about the incident last night said “It is the policy of the Episcopal church to allow each parish to decide the question of race for itself. The church has no fixed policy. We have many Negro churches that are successful. Whether or not white people and black shall be in the same parish is up to that parish to decide.”

When Pierson attempted to explain his reason for being found alone and in so compromising a position in the box car with the six-year-old colored girl, some one in the crowd that had gathered around the captured, alleged rapist, slipped up behind the frightened white man, it is alleged and “mashed” him in his nose with his fist. Blood came streaming from the man's nose in response to the blow, it is said.

Another man in the excited crowd, it is alleged, followed this up with a stiff uppercut to Pierson's jaw which yelled for “mercy.”

Upon the arrival of police the white man is said to have remarked to the officers, “Just look at my

HARLEM ASTIR OVER SHOOTING OF STUDENTS

NEW YORK CITY, September 20.—

(ANP)—The brutal shooting of two Negroes by policemen here has aroused the ire of Harlemites and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has asked Police Commissioner Grover Whalen to investigate the cases.

The two victims of the police were Ralph Baker, 24, a student of Lincoln university, Pennsylvania, who was shot in the back by Patrolman Walter Lowe, of the Emergency squad No. 1 and Allen Allen Small, who was also shot in the back by Patrolman Richard Collins of the E. 10th St. station.

Baker, according to William Fontaine, who had accompanied him to New York from their home in Montclair, New Jersey and the officer, had quarreled over a vacant seat on the elevated train. He testified that Baker took a seat next to Lowe who was in company with a young woman and was out of duty. Lowe ordered him to get up and the youth refused to do so, declaring there was sufficient room for both of them.

An argument followed and when the youths got off the elevated train Lowe followed them and attempted to place them under arrest. Baker ran and Lowe shot him in the back and placed Fontaine under arrest on charges of assault claiming that he had been struck by the students.

Small, too, was shot while attempting to evade arrest, but Patrolman Collins did not divulge the reason for his arrest. The shootings, according to Commissioner Whalen will be investigated thoroughly and Lowe will be suspended while the investigation is pending. Collins' case was not fully explained.

Beckham Wins Highest Honors In Psychology

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(CNS)—Dr. Albert Sidney Beckham, former professor of psychology at Howard university, has been appointed to do research in psychology at the Institute of Juvenile Research in Chicago, the largest in America dealing with psychiatric, psychological and criminological problems. He is the first Negro psychologist to get such recognition in any state research institution.

Dr. Beckham recently received his doctor's degree in psychology from New York university. His educational training was obtained at the Manhattan State hospital and at Mount Sinai hospital.

condition and how these people are beating me up,” only to be told by the squad, it is alleged, that “they ought to kill you.”

The white man, it is said, enticed the six year old colored girl into the box car by promising the child “some candy.”

He was placed under arrest and charged with attempting to rape the Williams child.

Pierson was placed under a bond of fifty-five hundred dollars, according to the child's father.

General Tells Legionnaires Of Valor Of Blacks

POMCA CITY, Okla., Sept. 20.—(ANP)—Sixty Negro delegates from over Oklahoma attended the state meeting of the American Legion which convened here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Oklahoma City, which has the banner colored Legion post of the state, was represented with twenty-five delegates. George Ade Davis, department commander, presided over the sessions.

The high points of the session came when Gen. Roy Heffman, famous commander of the 92nd division (colored troops) retold the story of the valor and courage of the black troopers under his command in France.

Senator Deneen Gets Pension For Widow Of Ex-Senate Garage Employee

WASHINGTON, (CNS)—Through the efforts of Senator Charles S. Deneen, of Illinois, chairman of the committee on audit and control of the contingent expense of the Senate, Mrs. Atlanta P. Cannon, widow of Thomas P. Cannon, who before his death was an employee in the garage of the Senate under the supervision of the Sergeant-at-arms, was granted a sum equal to six months' compensation at the rate he was receiving at the time of his death.

Cannon was uninsured at the time of his death, and left his wife absolutely without funds and destitute.

She will receive from the Senate fund something more than $500.

LILY-WHITE HEADS C. O. P. COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 23.—(ANP)—The Republican National committee, has a new chairman. Cadius M. Huston was elected as successor to Dr. Hubert M. Work, at the meeting held here Monday and which attended by Perry W. Howard, national committeeman of Mississippi, Mrs. Mary C. Booz, national committeewoman of Mississippi and Mrs. George S. Williams, national committeewoman of Georgia.

The meeting was harmonious throughout and the election of Mr. Huston came as no surprise to those who have studied the situation during the past few years. The new chairman is a close personal friend of President Herbert Hoover and while he is generally classed as “Lily-White” was born in Indiana, where he worked his way through school and later taught school for 330 per month.

Much interest was manifested on the outside concerning the attitude of the committee and the new chairman toward the Negro situation in the southern states. It was reported that Mr. Huston was opposed to Robert R. Church in Tennessee, who was not present at the meeting, but nothing was done which would give any insight as to what his policy would be now that he was chairman of the committee.

Contrary to reports, the registration of Mr. Howard as the Mississippi member was not requested or discussed in any way. Some weeks ago, Mr. Howard in a letter to the Associated Negro Press, stated that he would be requested to resign nor of the appointment of any patronage committee to handle the patronage in Mississippi.

The situation in Georgia remains the same, with Mrs. Williams as national committeewoman and the state without an officially designated committeewoman, with Uncle Joe. Watson and a white man as the claimants of the position.

Georgia Salons Let Street Car Bill Suffocate

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23.—(ANP)—Inter-racial leaders in Georgia are gratified at the complete and ignominious failure of a feeble effort made by a member of the recent legislature to add to the state's burden of segregation laws. The bill, which was introduced by a representative from one of the rural counties, provided that the races must be separated in street cars and buses by an actual partition instead of by an intangible and shifting line, as at present, or else must be carried in separate conveyances.

Apparently nobody took the measure seriously and it died so quietly that very few knew what became of it. Even the few members of the committee on railroads who voted to report it favorably, stated at the same time that if it ever came to a vote in the house they would oppose it.

As a matter of fact, however, it never reached the floor of the legislature for discussion or vote, nor was it even placed on the calendar for consideration. Evidently the legislature felt that enough, even of segregation, was “quite a plenty.”

HOME ATTACKED BY TOLEDO MOB HOODLUMS

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 20.—Mob attacks in on the home of a colored man and his family, Ozie Benson, in the course of which every pane of glass in the house was smashed and the members of the family endangered and subsequent firing of the house, have brought from a committee of colored citizens, members of the Toledo Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The letter alleges that no arrests were made, that police officers made no attempt to disperse the mob and that the life of the seller of the house had been threatened.

The letter states that “Every pane of glass in the house, front, side and back was broken and more than 25 pieces of brick thrown into the house, one striking Mr. Benson's sister as she held her small child in her arms and narrowly missing the child.

“The viciousness of the mob and its premeditation was shown by the presence of a flare stuck in the window in order that its murderous temper might be more accurate.

“Mr. Benson said nothing to the mob. He made no threats and offered no resistance, depending upon the impartiality of the law to protect him, his family and property.

Since that attack, the house has been fired, doing damage to the extent of 2 or 3 thousand dollars and efforts to obtain estimates to facilitate repairs have been resisted by the immediate neighbors.

“It is further alleged that the stenographer in Law Director Ritter's office threatened the life of Mr. Carman, who sold the house, by saying that he ought to be tarred and feathered and lynched.”

The letter asks that an official investigation be made by the mayor, that the officers if guilty be dismissed, and that the City of Toledo support the colored citizen's constitutional rights. The signers of the letter are: W. Payne Stanley; Atty. B. H. Fisher; Mrs. Lucky Sprulock; J. A. Roberts; the Revs. C. A. Ward and B. F. McWilliams; H. J. Miller, Secy. ## DORMITORY FOR COLORED GIRLS, FAILS

Michigan University Regents Give Up Plans After Vigorous Protest

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—(ANP)—During the past few weeks there has been considerable agitation on the part of Negro co-eds at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich., in thwarting the plans of the Regents in establishing a separate dormitory for the use of Negro young women in attendance at the state's largest institution of learning.

Action to grant the erection of such a dormitory was under consideration by the Regents of the University, but the proposal was dropped when it became obvious that many of the Negro co-eds at the institution raised strenuous objection, stating that they felt that the move segregated them and expressed the opinion that segregation was the motive behind the action to grant the building of such a dormitory for the exclusive use of Negro co-eds at the University of Michigan.

The Board of Regents pointed out that the first proposal for the erection of the dormitory was made by several interested in the welfare of Negro co-eds, among them being the Michigan State Association of Colored Women and that it was not the Board of Regents which first sponsored the movement, but the Regents acted only in keeping with the suggestion of several interested individuals and the Michigan State Association of Colored Women. The action to grant the request of the petitioners was dropped when it became apparent that many of the young women involved raised strenuous objections.

The position of the University of Michigan as given by Secretary Shirley W. Smith, states: “The Board of Regents acting on the request of Negro organizations, arranged to open a University house for Negro women students. Now it appears that the Negroes are not a unit on this question and, as the Regents have no desire to force it, the matters will be dropped.”

In June of this year, the Regents granted the proposal of a dormitory for Negro women students, and, accordingly, a house on Glen avenue near the Negro district was remodeled for the purpose of being used as a university house for Negro women students and is now ready. Now that opposition arose in the matter, the house will be used for other purposes.

W. A. DAVIS, PROMINENT LODGE LEADER, GETS STATE POSITION ON INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(ANP)—W. A. Davis, prominent fraternal leader, was appointed an arbitrator for the state industrial commission, Thursday, by Gov. Louis Emerson at a salary of $5,000 a year.

At the same time the arbitrators were appointed, four of the five new members of the commission itself were named, but the name of John French, colored commissioner appointed by Gov. Len Small, was not among them. There is one more vacancy to be filled. Whether that is to go to a Negro or one seems able to tell.

Davis has for many years been associated with the Deneen Republicans in Chicago, but this spring,

SLAYER OF I. C. PULLMAN PORTER STILL UNIDENTIFIED BY POLICE AUTHORITIES—1 SUSPECT FREED

TILDEN, Ill., September 20.—A Coroner's jury here yesterday found that E. W. Odell, Pullman porter of Memphis, Tenn., who was shot to death early Saturday on a St. Louis-to-Memphis Illinois Central passenger train near here, here, was slain by an unidentified person, assisted by A. J. Broome of Memphis, a passenger on the train.

The jury found that the slaying followed a quarrel over the refusal of a party of passengers to permit the porter to enter a dice game that was in progress on the train. The verdict also charged that at the time of the shooting, both Odell and Broome were under the influence of liquor.

Testimony was that W. E. Crawford, Pullman conductor, had struggled with Odell in attempting to

G. A. R. VOTES DOWN PLAN TO JOIN SOUTH

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 22.—(Special) — Gray-haired men, white and black, who, as lads in the 60's, battled those of the south, who served under the flag of the Confederacy, surged to their feet today and shouted their opposition to the proposed reunion of the soldiers of the north and south as the 63rd National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and "disapproved" and rejected a resolution favoring such a joint encampment.

Edwin J. Foster of Worcester, Mass., one of the youngest looking men at the encampment, was elected commander in chief to succeed John Reese of Broken Bow, Neb.

His election came on the third ballot, after Silas H. Owler, of Minneapolis, James E. Jewell of Fort Morgan, Col., and Samuel P. Town of Philadelphia had withdrawn and moved that the election be made unanimous.

The encampment selected Cincinnati for next year's meeting. The reunion plan, which has the support of President Hoover and the governors of thirty-one states, brought forth spirited debate from the aged men who at times threw the City hall auditorium into a bedlam as they shouted for the privilege of speaking.

The Committee on Resolutions "disapproved" the resolution and recommended that it be tabled, but a minority report by Leroy T. Carleton of Winthrop, Me., favoring the adoption of the resolution, sounded the battle call for many of the 500 delegates.

"They were wrong back in the sixties," said Frank O. Cole of New Jersey, in a voice which broke at times, in favoring the committee's recommendation, "and when they admit they were wrong, and not until then, will we join with them. Let them fold up their battle flags, the flags we fought against and carried Old Glory again to victory. When they put those flags in museums then we will believe they want reunion."

Carleton, in introducing the minority report, said he touched on the subject with "fear and trembling," but declared that slavery is "dead and dead forever."

"We are all Americans today and for God's sake don't mar your record," Major Calk of Chicago said.

The Rev. Mr. Blackshear, a Texan by birth and a graduate of Harvard and Oxford universities, said last night that his parish was behind him in his stand. He said that there were a half dozen Negroes at his parish who had been there for years and whom he accepted willingly.

He said, however, that more and more Negroes were coming into the district about the church, and that he had received many applications for membership from Negroes to his parish. He said that he had turned these applications in the belief that only in Negro parishes could Negroes rise to leadership and receive the best that church could offer to them.

BIG TELEPHONE PROGRESS MADE IN FIVE YEARS

Long Distance Service Has Been Improved, Extended and Made Cheaper for User

Within the past five years the aspect of Bell System toll and long distance telephone service, or out-of-town service as it is sometimes called, has improved materially from the viewpoint of the telephone user. It now costs him less to telephone to distant points; his calls go through much faster, generally while he holds the wire; his voice is transmitted more clearly than was the case five years ago; his service is more dependable and interference to it from storms and similar occurrences occur less frequently.

The number of telephones which he can reach from his home or office has greatly increased, so that now he can be connected with 85% of all the world's telephones. His voice can reach northward into Canada, southward into Mexico and Cuba. The transatlantic radio telephone service enables him to speak directly with a great majority of the telephones in Western Europe, situated in seventeen different countries. In the United States alone any Bell telephone can now be connected directly with any one of more than nineteen and a half million telephones, compared with about fifteen million, eight hundred thousand at the end of 1924. At that time Canada and Cuba were the only foreign countries with which the Bell System had telephone connection.

Such progress could only be obtained by the most careful planning coupled with systematic research. It demands continuous development work in every phase of the telephone industry. New operating methods have been and are being constantly devised and tested. Experiments looking to improvement of present types of equipment and the discovery of new types to meet changed conditions are being carried out steadily by Bell System engineers.

This development work is proceeding on a larger scale now than ever before. It will continue on a continually expanding basis in the effort to fulfill the service goal of the Bell System. This, as expressed by President Walter S. Gifford of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, is to furnish "a telephone service for the nation free, so far as humanly possible, from imperfections, errors or delays, and enabling at all times anyone, anywhere to pick up a telephone and talk to anyone else anywhere else, clearly, quickly and at a reasonable cost."

NORTH SIDERS URGE SCHOOL 'RACE' BAR

The famous University Community Service club, now widely known throughout Indianapolis, because of its Jim-crow activities, is still busily engaged in its work of spreading race hatred and principles of segregation.

The fact was revealed by a very recent letter issued by the officers of the club summoning its numerous adherents to a regular "Keep the Negroes Out" meeting.

The motto of the club, which citizens have learned to know too well, is "To Save Butler and to Keep and maintain the territory west of Meridian and north of Thirtieth street A White Neighborhood."

The meeting was called for Tuesday evening of last week at the University church, Fortieth and Capitol avenue.

Among the questions brought up for discussion at the meeting, according to the letter was a report on the action of "Our School Board," and "the removal of all colored school children from our boundaries."

Followers of the University Community Service club were urged in the letter to "Our Friends," to attend the meeting and "bring a friend."

Clyde P. Miller, 806 New City Trust building, is president of the club. M. L. Clawson, 109-19 Fletcher buildings & Trust building, is chairman of the executive committee of the Jim-Crow club which would make a football out of the constitution, if it could.

It is alleged that the activities of this club are directly responsible for the very recent action of officials of public school 43, in refusing admittance there to colored pupils.

These pupils live within a stone's throw, so to speak, from the school which is in the very heart of the Community club stamping ground!

Until the advent of the coming existence of the one hundred percent race prejudice organization and its activities, Negro children attended School 43 for years, unmolested.

Muncie Undertaker Faces U. S. Charge

A recent effort of the government to prove that William Donaldson of Muncie, took a letter and contents not rightfully, has failed.

Donaldson, who it is alleged, is an undertaker, never-the-less is facing charges of forgery. The latter situation was revealed following a hearing before Howard S. Young, United States commissioner.

Commissioner Young, who set Donaldson's bond at two thousand dollars, said there were extenuating circumstances in the case. It is said that Donaldson, who moved to Muncie from Cairo, Ill., not long ago, admitted cashing three expense checks amounting to less than three hundred dollars forwarded to him from Cairo.

It is further alleged that the checks were addressed to William M. Donaldson, said by postal inspectors to be a government engineer engaged in the Mississippi river flood control work.

Donaldson's defense was that he thought the checks might have been payment for "working on the levee" during the flood season. It was brought in the hearing that Donaldson had been engaged in the latter capacity for the past sixteen years.

The fact that Donaldson was promised by a cousin, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, a share of the latter government pension was also advanced by the undertaker in his defense.

Donaldson, who offered to make restitution to the government, charges that a statement he made to postal officials was made under duress. Donaldson asserted he had had no intention of defrauding the government.

Attorney R. L. Bailey is representing the defense in the case.

They Worked Day and Night To Restore Central Office

Part of Force of Installers Working on Central Office Apparatus for Burned-Out Kansas City Office.

AN entire telephone office in Kansas City went up in smoke shortly after midnight on April 1, and 1,500 telephone lines were destroyed.

Almost immediately a force of sixty-four installers were assembled for the emergency, and in less than 150 hours, complete service had been restored. To do this, however, required working day and night for six days, and material had to come from far distant points, including the Western Electric Company plant in Kearny, N. J. Material was collected which had been originally intended for points in Florida, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Washington and California.

The speed with which service was restored in this instance is characteristic of what takes place when an emergency arises anywhere in the Bell System. The resources of the entire System are available and men and material are rushed forward that the service may go on and the public suffer the least possible inconvenience.

'HEARTS IN DIXIE' STAR ASKS GREATER SUPPORT OF COLORED MOVIE AND STAGE PLAYS

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Replying to an inquiry by Walter White, assistant secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, about the Negro actor in Hollywood, Clarence E. Muse, star of "Hearts in Dixie," writes that colored people should support Negro actors and Negro motion pictures if they wish real opportunity from the producers.

"It is indeed an exacting problem for the Negro artist," writes Mr. Muse. He is scarcely considered at present. Only in rare individual cases has he been received as an artist, and the most striking thing is that it is not necessarily prejudice that holds him out.

"The producers are moved solely by box-office appeals and whims of the many thousand distributors and theatre managers, who reflect the reactions of their audiences of their weekly reports to producers.

"The recent production 'Hearts in Dixie' was intended originally to be a two-reel experiment, a novelty. It grew while production was in progress to a feature. It has been received amidst great applause all over the country. But the producers still think that such a thing should not be repeated often, because they are of the opinion that the type of colored pictures that will appeal for the present to white audiences are not of the colored fancy. More has been heard to the discredit of 'Hearts in Dixie' by the producers from colored people than praise. This is a game that we must build ourselves into, through the same process that other artists have been compelled to follow.

"If a Negro artist had a half million or more serious letters pouring in from all over the country, asking for a return of that artist, he would soon receive a delightful contract, more pictures of the style asked for would be coming forth. And in each one of these efforts please understand that new opportunities would be open for our artists crying for a chance—Let the serious, ambitious Negro public direct their letters to producers like Fox, First National, Warner Brothers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount, Pathe, PKO and other well-known producers and you would see the names of colored artists heading productions.

"It is our fight. We pay a large sum of money for picture entertainment. Get enthused. No one is enthused now but white audiences, we simply accept what has been done as a matter of course. Here is a field to put over a great antidote for race feeling."

"Jazz Regiment" On Long Island

LONG ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 20.—"Jazz Regiment," which played last week at the Lafayette theatre in New York City, will play the last half of this week in Hempstead, Long Island and is then scheduled for Broadway. The theatre is yet unnamed.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 20.—Cora Green, who left New York eight weeks ago to do a single for Radio-Kieth-Orpheum, is now headed east after playing Coast theatres.

Cora Green is playing the Orpheum theatre, here this week.

New York Awaits Famous Cricketer

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(ANP)—Cricketers of this country are eagerly awaiting the arrival of L. L. Constantine, the peer of them all, who is scheduled to arrive in New York on September 24, from England. Mr. Constantine is the highest paid professional cricketer in the world being a member of the Lancashire team in England. Numerous press clippings have preceded his trip to New York, where he will engage in two matches before sailing to Bermuda, where he is to play a series of games. Without doubt, this young colored chap has made himself the most popular figure in England's national game, and no sports paper in the United Kingdom calls it an issue unless some news of the mighty Constantine is printed.

"BROWN GAL" CHORUS

"Brown Gal." This name has been a familiar phrase for the past year. The show "won its spurs" on an extended trip playing only the big houses. John Henderson, former local "boy," is manager of the company. "Brown Gal" will be seen at Walker theatre soon.

Harmony Emperors' Quartet Heard In "On With the Show"

The members of the famous "Harmony Emperors' Quartet" did their stuff and how—before cameras and mikes, on the big theatre set where Alan Crosland filmed "On With the Show," the first 100 per cent natural color, talking, singing, dancing Warner Bros. Vitaphone picture now at the Walker theatre.

This colored quartet is rated the best in the nation. It was one of the sensations of Hollywood when it appeared in a prologue at Grauman's theatre, and later it toured the country with acclaim.

It is appearing as one of the featured numbers in this dual story of a musical comedy and the play in the comedy.

The scenes of the show were filmed on the stage with full musical accompaniment, while most of the dramatic action takes place backstage. Much of the dark-toned jazz stuff was especially written for this production and is set in the cotton fields down south.

One of the happiest features of the filming of "On With the Show" was the fact that the extras who composed the large audience, got such a tremendous kick out of the Harmony quartet and their weird and moving Negro melodies. If there was an extra long wait between scenes, the extras called for a song, and the quartet always good naturedly responded. And the applause that they got was not "movie applause," either.

The biggest crowd ever attended an opening game at Hampton is forecasted. Special arrangements have been made for the entertainment of visitors. Bay Shore hotel, located on Chesapeake Bay, will be open for the accommodation of visitors attending the Howard game on October 5, the Petersburg game on October 19 and the West Virginia Home Coming game on November 16. A special dance will be held at Bay Shore on each of these occasions.

When Hampton and Lincoln meet at the Polo Grounds in New York City on November 2, it is expected that one of the largest crowds that ever attended a football game played by Negro teams will witness the contest. Great interest is being shown in the game in New York City among both colored and white football enthusiasts, as it will be the first opportunity New York fans have had to see a game between two Negro teams. Many doubt whether Negro teams play the same high-grade football as leading white colleges. Coaches Gideon E. Smith of Hampton and William Taylor of Lincoln hope to remove that doubt for good and all on November 2.

—Elaborate Plans
A joint Hampton-Lincoln committee, with Dr. Fritz Leo Neuron as chairman is making elaborate arrangements for the entertainment of thousands of out-of-town visitors. A large number of Hampton and Lincoln alumni and football fans generally from New York State, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Washington, Delaware and Virginia have begun making plans and organizing parties to attend the game.

Tickets for the game will be placed on sale in four New York offices on September 15, two of which will be down in the city and two in Harlem. Arrangements have been made to fill the tickets orders as soon as applications are received. This will give opportunity to get choice seats early and to be assured of them. The Pennsylvania railroad officials have expressed the desire to cooperate by offering to run a special train from Old Point to New York. A special rate of half fare is offered to New York and return if three hundred people make the trip.

On Armistice Day, Hampton and A. and T. Greensboro, will again play in Norfolk. Those who witnessed the game last year will recall seeing one of the finest games and one of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed a C. I. A. A. game in Norfolk. Hundreds of people came from all points of North Carolina. The same kind of interest is being shown this year and an even larger crowd expected.

Other games played by the Sea-siders are St. Paul at Hampton on October 12; Hampton at Durham on October 26 and with Shaw at Raleigh on November 23. The season will close with the Thanksgiving game with Union university at Richmond.

Silas Green Show

By TIM OWSLEY

The Silas Green Show is on its way to Delta, down where the cotton lights up the land like the snow banked fields of the north in the winter time. The planters are receiving more for their cotton this season than before, which means a bright outlook for our business, as this product is most planted and picked by our people. Even in this section of Mississippi, one can see the town roads crowded with mule teams and a bale or so of cotton upon each wagon on their way to the market place. And where modern trucks are in use one can see many bales piled high for the same purpose. At Holly Springs, Dr. Rayford attended Miss Dorothy Roumanis, for an attack of fever which most people take when coming into this part of the country. She has improved, however. Grenada, Winona, Kosciusko, are small towns with many of our people in each one of them. F. B. Woods has added several new popular selections to his nightly concert. In fact, F. B. has a band that is to be proud of. Ada Booker, who is the character woman of this show, creates an impression that any artist might envy. Marion Grasham, the Wife of Kite, has been ill in a hospital at Cairo, Ill., but will rejoin the show at Jackson. The gang as well as her husband, awaits her arrival with joy. Wm. Bryant, who has a brother and two sisters in Indianapolis and feels sure that they read The Indianapolis Recorder and wishes them to know that he is doing fine. Surprise and sorrow greeted me when I read about the death of Clarence Dunlop. Many times in life, Clarence proved himself a brother and a friend to me and at his passing I can not help but mourn my loss to our brotherhood as well as the passing of a real friend. The Silas Green show will play the following route: Columbia, Miss., Sept. 17; in fact, all the towns are in Mississippi for the next 15 or 20 days: West Point, 18; Durant, 19; Canton, 20; Picketts, 21; Jackson, 22; Tchula, 24; Yazoo City, 25; Belzoni, 26; Indianola, 27; Ita Bena, 28; Green Wood, 29 and 30. Chas. Collier, owner of the Silas Green show, says watch this column for an ad if artists or musicians wish work west from Broadway. Broadway sturdily supports glittering cinema temples. But the drama and musical comedy have become entirely too expensive, save for the thin coated ermine minority.

To see a hit show, down front, costs around $20 for two seats, and the young theatregoer cannot afford this, hence is being weaned from the stage of our parents. The theatrical producers do not realize the youth of today is the potential theatregoers of tomorrow and should be cultivated.

Outside of New York City and Chicago, the legitimate theatre is almost a thing of yesterday. Even the first class original cast companies cannot compete successfully with the movies in these cities.

JIMMIE COOPER LOSES TO BABY COX
Jimmie Cooper's injunction against Baby Cox to refrain her from appearing in Connie's "Hot Chocolates" or at Connie's Inn, was denied by Supreme Court Justice Crain, after George Immerman, one of the owners, and Baby Cox filed their affidavits. Cooper was also suing for $12,000.

Cooper insisted that Baby Cox's services are unique and that her place cannot be filled because she can sing, dance and read lines. Baby Cox replied that she never got more than $75 a week with Cooper while Connie and his brother George, gave her first Broadway appearance and pays her $115 a week. Immerman said he believes that Cooper has no use for her services but is maintaining the action solely in an endeavor to extort money from Baby Cox, now that she appears to making some headway in the theatrical profession.

JULES BLEDSOE AT BENEFIT
With such stars as Ted Healy, Joseph Regan, Irene Rich, Ken Murray, Dave Opellen, Charlie Murray, Estelle Taylor, Horace Heidt, and his Californians, Jules Bledsoe will appear on a benefit at the E. WITH "GAMBLING"

'CLOSEUP,' ENGLISH CINEMA MONTHLY, DEVOTES ENTIRE AUGUST NUMBER TO NEGRO

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—"Close-up," an English monthly devoted to "films as an art," gives its August number to discussions of the Negro in motion pictures. The number, which is illustrated with photographs from films in which Negroes were actors, in Europe, Africa and America, contains the following features: The Negro actor of the American movies, by Geraldyn Dismond; "The African American Cinema," by Harry A. Potamkin; letters from Paul Green and Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; "Of Negro Motion Pictures," by Elmer Carter; "Black Fanfare," by Oswell Blakeston and "London and the Negro Film," by Hay Chow.

A number of writers state that the Negro is only at the beginning of the contributions he may eventually be enabled to make through the motion picture. "We are now entering into a vogue of the Negro Film," writes Mr. Potamkin. "Perhaps when that is over, the true, profound, realized Negro film will be produced and perhaps Negroes will produce them."

Mrs. Dismond sees in the Negro motion picture and the Negro actor what may "easily become a potent factor in our great struggle for better race relations." Mr. White feels that it will be some time before producers "may have intelligence and courage enough to utilize the excellent material contained in some of the more notable novels written about the Negro by Negro and white writers during the last few years."

NEGRO BANKERS MEET

Radio-Kieth-Orpheum Hold Celebration

By MAURICE DANCER

Vaudeville is having its holiday. Last week, throughout America, wherever there are one or more Radio-Kieth-Orpheum theatres, every city, town and hamlet celebrated an inauguration of the first R-K-O greater season. Heretofore, there were Kieth and Albee, Proctors, Pantages and Orpheum playhouses. Now they have become identified universally as "An R-K-O theatre. The official opening of this last show season of the new regime of amusement presents other interesting angles as the programs will be augmented with special features, both in vaudeville and sound pictures which will give more work to the race performers. The orchestras in nearly every theatre have been increased in number and quality, new decorations and modern lighting have been added to the stage equipments, and in many cases the theatres themselves have been redecorated and reslated during the summer.

The reorganized vaudeville and film booking departments have engaged the leading attractions for the new season. Another good feature, is the new rule put into force in the R-K-O houses, prohibits house managers from paying acts off until after the closing show. Before, there have been days when acts could draw most of their money before their week was finished. Establishment of the new condition was said to have been prompted by difficulties experienced by house managers when acts with liens on their salaries drew money early in the week and the house was placed in an embarrassing position of being unable to meet an obligation that should have evolved morally upon the lien-act. With the many colored acts being headlined and featured over this circuit, the outlook is pleasant to contemplate. The slogan is expressive: R-K-O.

SCHOOL SEGREGATION

In spite of all that is being done and said against segregation and its humiliating consequences the nefarious system continues to spread its unwelcome wings over the city of Indianapolis.

The system which is being pushed with the seeming tenacity of a Hindenberg aided and abetted in powerful and unquestionably authorized quarters has definitely invaded the Hoosier capital with its many vexations near unsolvable and very often embarrassing problems.

The very recent incident at School 43 is a case in point.

Colored pupils, children of tax payers, were turned away from that public institution and told to go elsewhere in quest of the education which is due them at the hands of the city. It must be borne in mind that the school in question is located in the very heart of that section of the city where the so-called University Community Service club from every indication reigns supreme.

This organization could be more fittingly described as the club for the dissemination of For Whites only propaganda.

It is fixed in its determination to see to it that Negroes are segregated to the limit.

Left uncured in its work of spreading race hatred and poisonous antagonism, this organization, and all others of its type would be held enough to rob the Negro of his natural place on earth.

Parents of the children were told by the School board that the matter would be looked into. A rather time worn manner of adjusting a difference of so significant an import.

It is also a clear case of an undemocratic wrong committed with the advice and consent of the higher-ups.

In sum, the situation is at least quite a discouraging one. The system of segregation is meeting with comparatively no opposition in Indianapolis. And it is making itself felt in no uncertain term.

Indianapolis has a local inter-racial committee. This committee functions at odd times indifferently. Here is an opportunity.

BAPTIST UNIFICATION

In his recent speech before the National Baptist convention in Kansas City, Dr. L. K. Williams, president, struck quite a progressive chord when he urged the union of the various branches of that denomination.

In outlining the many substantial accomplishments of the Baptist church in the past and the program for future furtherance, the Doctor called attention to what he referred to as the need for greater improvement and crusading on the part of the church.

The Doctor very logically stressed the need of unifying the Baptist forces, and pointed out that "There should be a Baptist Reunion committee appointed to meet a similar body from the National Baptist convention, unincorporated, and the Lott Carey convention and draw up articles of peace and union."

"I do yet believe," said the Doctor "that the Negro Baptists of the world should somewhere and sometime, meet and work together in one grand union." Of course, the reverend gentleman is right. There is absolutely no reason why it should be otherwise.

We all know what eventually happens to the house that is divided against itself.

The Baptist church is admittedly a substantially powerful organization. A circumstance that places the denomination clearly in the category of being too influential an agency of civilization and society, to be other than united fully in spirit and purpose. This means that not only the Baptist church but all other churches of the Christian faith of the same denomination that are baffling with a like brother as that to which Dr. Williams referred in his speech, should stand firmly together.

Dr. Williams' speech was as timely as it was logical.

Now that Crispus Attucks is recognized by leading universities, we wonder if the same recognition will be in vogue in our dear-old Hoosier state in football and basketball activities. We wonder.

Jim Griffith, heavyweight boxer, forgot he was boxing in New York the other evening and, displaying his Texas diplomacy allowed Jimmy Maloney, white heavyweight, the honor of the first blow and—the fight was over. Bet he doesn't forget next time.

Sardine manufacturers could obtain several pointers in the art of packing 'em in by following the Columbia Ave. street cars bearing Crispus Attucks students to school most any morning.

Our Contemporaries Say

HUSTON AND G. O. P.

The election of Claudius H. Huston, of Indiana, Tennessee, and New York, the son of a Presbyterian minister, as the chairman of the National Republican Committee this week, may mean a change and it may not mean a change in the G. O. P. toward the colored brother.

The election of Mr. Huston, as of Tennessee, features him as the first man from the South to hold such a position. Just what the significance to be placed upon this is to be determined.

It is a known fact that the mysterious Horace Mann of reported Ku Klux Klan fame, and mighty man during the 1928 campaign, is a friend of Huston's, and it is reported that he will be recalled to the councils of the National committee.

It is also known that Robert R. Church, of Memphis and Mann are not friends by any means. Mr. Church did not attend the committee meeting here this week.

Mr. Huston has been manager of the general corporate properties of the Locomotive Engineers for the past two years. This has put him in direct contact with capital and labor and may or may not mean much to the laboring man. He is reported to be a fine organizer and financier.

The outlook for the G. O. P. is not rosy. Mr. Huston may have the big opportunity of his life trying to whip the progressives in line and elect enough Senators in 1930 to assure President Hoover a successful four-year reign.

The 1930 elections may surprise Mr. Huston and the conservative G. O. P. leadership. The record of 1922, when a Republican majority of only one vote led to some of Calvin Coolidge's most disastrous legislative defeats, may be repeated after 1930. The dissatisfaction of tariff proceedings may react along with the swing-back from the big Hoover majority of 1928.

The present Progressives up for reelection next year may all return. The list includes Borah, Walsh, of Montana; McNary and Norris, Kenyon of Iowa may be induced to run against Steck, the Democrat from that state. Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, may replace the recently appointed Brock. Al Smith of 1928 fame, of New York, may fill the reported vacancy to be caused by the resignation of Senator Copeland to head the Sanitary commission. He is reported as a Progressive. Conservative Gillett, of Massachusetts, may be replaced by a more liberal Republican or Democrat, which will be a gain for the Progressives.

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, is 85, a conservative and may not try for another term. His successor may help the Progressives. Schall, of Minnesota, has lost some of his progressiveness and may be replaced. Then Senator Deneen of Illinois, a Conservative, may be replaced by Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick.

Senator Edge, of New Jersey, has been appointed Ambassador to Paris, and his successor may be a Conservative. And, too, Thomas Heflin, of Ku Klux Klan and Alabama fame, the dry whose son persists in being a wet among wets, may not return. With these changes looming, Mr. Hoover and Mr. Huston may find that they may need the Negro in some of these states. However, as Mr. Huston is an unknown quantity regarding his policy toward Negroes in the party, we shall watch his movements.

"MEN LIKE GODS"

We have been told that in long past ages of the world, men walked the earth like gods.

At the present period in the history of mankind, and in the history of the Negro in particular, we are a race to face with a demand the like of which we have never witnessed before. We are listening to calls for men of a type, that must thrill the imagination of those who hear the voice of inspiration.

Had we the opportunity to have reviewed the centuries as they came and went, and to have the road privilege of choosing in which period we would rather have our existence, we would, without a doubt, choose twentieth-century because it is the most glorious century that has ever been ushered in since the worlds began. We rejoice in the glorious privilege of living our lives in this grand and glorious century. It therefore behooves us to measure up to the demands of the century, to meet its every requirement and to show ourselves like heroes, of whom the very gods would have reason to be proud.

Ours is a glorious heritage. From every angle of all creation we can hear the voice of inspiration calling to us and saying, "Negroes, rise up and be men. Shall we listen to these incessant, urgent calls? Are we going to measure up to the requirement of his noble period of time? Are we going to rise and go forth to the grandest conquests that men have ever essayed upon? The answers lie with us. We are impelled to pledge ourselves, our lives, our all before the presence of mankind, and say, in unmistakable fashion, "Yes, we are going to rise out of the shadows of the past, cast despair, and gloom, and brooding aside, and be such men that the very gods would delight to walk with us."

Conscious of the things that are presenting themselves to our gaze; mindful of what God and all creation expect of us, we are moving forward, to lay, in the full understanding that we are bound or the greatest adventure that any race of men ever undertook; and filled with the consciousness of lower from the source of light and life, we will not falter, will not fail, nor turn aside, till we have carved out a high niche in the halls of fame, and have established such monuments to the prowess and courage, and daring, and achievement of the Negro, that mankind everywhere will be willing to concede that these were men like gods.

Negroes, wherever upon earth you may dwell, he call comes to you today. Turn not aside from the imperious demands of this noble age; but buckling on your armour, march on to meet every trial, every conflict, every barrier, every obstacle, every foe, and having mastered all, stand serene and tranquil beneath the skies of God, masters in a land of love, made so by the exploits of the Negro peoples of the world, and kept so because of the strength, and courage, and daring of the sons of Ham, who will then be known to their fellow-humans as "MEN LIKE GODS." —THE NEGRO WORLD.

THE VALUE OF DEFEAT

Defeat teaches priceless lessons; thru it we learn our weaknesses and grow stronger through his knowledge. Defeat gives pause to life, a pause in which to think calmly and deeply, such moments as dignity and poise. Defeat flushes the wild anfare of ambition, we gain a better perspective, we learn wisdom. Indeed, it is in the dark season of defeat that we develop the most precious seedings of the soul.

Bedtime Story

THE RACE FOR A WIFE

A man had a daughter who liked all the creatures of the forest. Each of them was trying to secure the daughter for his wife and the daughter was unable to decide which one she wanted.

They all went to the father for his consent. Each one explained to the father how he was the best man for his daughter. Everybody was singing his own praise.

The father told them to wait, that he would place his daughter in the old field, and that the one who reached there first should have his daughter.

They agreed to enter the race. Each one began to plan how he could do his best to reach her first.

When they all assembled the fox said, "We must catch the deer and tie him, or he will win the race, as he can run much faster than any of us."

So they all combined, and tied the deer and started on the race. After they had gotten on the way the spider came along and saw the deer tied fast.

The spider asked, "What are you doing tied?"

The deer told him how all the animals had combined to tie him in order to keep him from winning the race and securing the daughter of the old man.

The spider then said, "If I let you loose what will you pay me?"

The deer said that if he won the race he would give the spider their first daughter for a wife. The spider then untied him and jumped on the deer's horn.

The deer ran and ran and finally passed all the other animals. When he got in the old field near the old man's house the spider jumped down and ran to the girl before the deer could reach her.

The deer said that the girl belonged to him because he had brought the spider and without him the spider could not have got there. At the spider said she was his because he was the first to go up to the girl and claim her, and if he had not untied the deer he could not have entered the race at all, so they submitted the matter to the judge, who decided that the spider won the race and therefore was entitled to the old man's daughter.

TREES

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to Him;
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer
wear
A nest of robins in her hair;
Upon whose bosom snow has lain
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

From The Thames To The Main

Editor's Note: This is the fourth of the series of special articles by Mr. William Pickens, released exclusively to those publications that contracted or same.

FROM THE THAMES—14—24 G. L.

By WILLIAM PICKENS

(For The Associated Negro Press) Mr. Bradford, in London, further explained how he thought the League of Nations might serve to take the sting edge off imperialism by internationalizing foreign loans to small nations, citing the loans made to several small mid-European countries through the league, in which cases the league stood as sponsor for the negotiations and had the money borrowed in fractional parts from bankers and other lending interests in different countries, so that one big nation did not hold the entire mortgage against the little borrower. If, for example, Latvia owes England, France, the United States, Italy and Russia, money borrowed under the same contract through the League of Nations, it will be much less likely that either of those nations would ever commit the folly of moving out done to collect its share by force. Such a move would be contrary to the interests of the other creditors. The small borrower might be partly defended by the mutual jealousies and conflicting interests of the lenders. Undoubtedly the absurd war debt of 125 billion dollars originally laid upon the Germans, has been gradually hewn down to more sensible proportions because Germany owed many different nations that they all were constantly figuring by what plan they could get a little more of what was due them, as they became convinced that the total could never be collected. If Germany had owed one great nation, that nation would have been much slower perhaps in reducing the debt, even though it was certain that it could never be paid. They would have held to it as a big stick and diplomatic advantage.

After Mr. Bradford, spoke Father Conrad, of the English church. He is one of the kind of preachers who thinks as well as preach. He acknowledged that the general trend of "imperialism" seems to be toward uniting of the people of white commonwealths against the colored races and nations. The poor white workers at home are misled in thinking that the imperialists are "patriots," seeking new good things for the home folks, until they find out that the imperialists really establish in the subjugated territories industrial enterprises that outrival those at home because of cheap labor and so in the final act they lower the standard of living in the home country by cutting wages and destroying industries. Once these imperialists get well quoted one who had declared openly that "We conquered India by sword and by sword we shall hold it," as a market for British goods. That was a frank admission that India is not in any sense held for the benefit of the Indians. Only weak minds and a few fervid missionaries hold any such positions today. India is being held annually of four hundred million dollars by private British investments and about two hundred million to the British government.

It is the same power that holds Africa. The Bishop of Zanzibar turned against imperialism and said: "Great Britain regards East Africa as an economic asset," and F. C. Andrews, priest of the church said: "Money is the main object we are seeking."

Rodger Baldwin and William Pickens, of the United States, then took up the discussion of imperialism from viewpoint. Mr. Baldwin explained how, being a younger nation, we are likely to use cruder and more brutal and direct means than the British in getting our capital set up among other nations. The Negro speakers explained, among other things, that slavery and imperialism are but the reverse sides of the same thing; that the exploiting powers first sent abroad and imported a fraction of the brawn of the weaker peoples with which to create capital; and after this capital was overflowing they next turned to exporting the capital to the territory of the weak, so as to exhibit more fraction, but the total human brawn of the oppressed. Imperialism is therefore, worse in an extent, than slavery for imperialism can operate about one hundred per cent.

Before leaving London I visited the Parliament and had a conference with a Labor Member, a personal friend who I know to be interested in a square deal to Africans and Indians. But I found that he had withdrawn from the British anti-imperialist organization. He was forced out, he explained, because of the methods of the Communists in the organization. This touches on one of the weaknesses of the Communists movement, which is well known to many of those who are without prejudice and who insist that Communists, like the members of any other political party, should have their rights of citizenship fully protected. That weakness is: The Communists themselves display an astonishing intolerance and lack of regard for the opinions and rights of those who do not exactly agree with them. They lack notion of drama and courage, but they have not the practical faculty of working toward a common aim with others, a some economic and general social programs, when those who do not happen to agree with the Communists in political aims. This member of the House of Commons explained how some of the Communist officials of the British Anti-imperialist league, had in effect broken faith with him, had destroyed a chance which he was at the time developing for some relief of India. That had asked him to sign a statement. He declined to sign the statement and in declining, he wrote them the frank reasons why: that he was at that time in negotiations with the Viceroy of India and about to effect something for the good of the Indian people. Those to whom he wrote this explanation, published this note, because he had refused for the reasons given to sign their statement. That, of course, put a big monkey wrench into the negotiations with the Indian government. This man, while he may not believe, with the Communists, in "the immediate evacuation of Africa," for example, does he believe that methods of government and economic procedure should be altered so as to let the natives share in all the benefits. The difference is chiefly one of the methods and policy, with the great majority of Englishmen, at least, agreeing rather with this member of the House than with the Communist ideal. But more about this flaw in Communist genius later, if we can get around to it among the multitude of things we have to observe.

After visiting our good friends of Friends' House and having other conferences in England, we set out for Frankfurt-On-The-Main, Germany via, Ostend, Brussels and Cologne. For once we had five or six hours in the English channel without sea. From Ostend to first stop in Germany, from early morning till afternoon, we got no water. There was none to be had on the train, although we had been without water since leaving London on the night before, at ten o'clock. No sensible person dared take a drink of water on the Channel boat. These continental trains, which are generally comfortable than the same class of travel in America, will sometimes turn up with something absurd just like that—No water for a day's travel or so. We finally found water on a station platform in Germany. The Germans are human. But next time let us look at the great Welt Kongress gegen Imperialismus.

The Voice Of The People

A proposition to adjust a part of the unrest and trouble in the world affairs. The war debts of European nations owed to the United States government, known to be a burden on the debtors and keeping them from buying many commodities, makes with many dangers and uncertainties. To establish quiet and tranquil relations among the people interested, I, W. D. Harrison, 3975 Bethel Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., propose the following as a settlement:

By the United States, through its president and congress, make treaties and arrange with the debtor countries to cancel the war obligations owed the United States, by transferring title to land now held by them in Africa, thus relieving those foreign countries from the burden and restoring their powers to purchase commodities which will make prosperity in the United States to prosper. Then the United States to present the land so secured and give it to the American Negro who will go and take it. In the acquisition of the property by people, the United States government, by trading the war obligations of European nations to secure title to the African provinces. The United States government will then send in engineers to survey and map the country, study its natural resources and recommend plans for development. Those who will go and take it, furnish materials and build roads through the country, furnish materials to build railroads, shops, factories, for the development of the natural resources. Lay out modern farming communities, lay out and build towns at important places, furnish tools and equipment necessary to work the farms, securing laborers from American Negroes who desire to be the future citizens of the new colony, then give this to the Negro government as part pay for the indemnity owed the Negro for his abduction and enslavement.

PROPERTY OBLATION. The American Negro emigrating to Africa owning property in the United States where he cannot make private sale, will have his property appraised by a commission appointed for that purpose, which will give him a certificate of value upon arriving in Africa. This certificate will be accepted at its face value for any property he may desire to purchase of the African government, or for emigrating having no property or cargo giving principal address. Music was furnished by Ball Bros. band. Other ministers of this city participated on the program. The Rev. William Giles, pastor.

Your editorial in the last issue on "The City Manager Election," tells us that "A local group of Negroes who have seen fit to work with the league, have fostered the idea of a Negro of unquestioned worth in the community as a candidate. This idea was rejected on the grounds that the 'Klan Spirit of 1924, was and is a part of the local citizenry.'"

If the above is true it is to be regretted. What your readers would like to know is which "Klan Spirit" are you referring to. The White Klan or the Negro Klan? It may be that a Negro was selected and the Negro Klan Spirit objected to that particular Negro and the result is no Negro is on the league's ticket. Investigate the matter. You may get the surprise of your life. The Negro population of the United States is so large that there is not a recognized leader among us. There are many "prominent Negroes," not one of which is capable of leading anybody anywhere. A "Klan spirit" exists among them that works to their own detriment. When a "prominent Negro" is selected to fill any position, objections will be raised by other "prominent Negroes" each one feeling that he should have been the selected one.

Hints To The Hostess
SOME PICKLING RECIPES
BETTY BARCLAY

The word "pickles" covers a multitude of skins—and pulps and juices and sweeteners too. Pickles may be sweet or sour; they may be whole or halves; they may be served under the name of Indian dill, catsup, chili, chow-chow or piccalilli; they may consist of cucumbers, onions, citron, currants, pears, plums, walnuts or watermelon rind. In all truth the word "pickles" covers a multitude of skins.

Here are some recipes for sweet pickles—something that is needed to balance the pickle shelves of the preserve closet. The pickles are tasty bites. The sugar contained in the jar is quick energy food and a good fuel for winter.

4 oranges
2 cups sugar
1-1/3 cups vinegar
1 teaspoon whole cloves
1 teaspoon stick cinnamon
Peel oranges removing all white membrane; cut into thick slices; sugar, vinegar and spices for 25 minutes. Add fruit and simmer slowly for one hour. Place in sterilized jars and seal.

Take Your Trouble
To Fanny Lou

DEAR MISS NIGHTINGALE:

I have kept company for two years with a girl whom I believed spotless and pure, when suddenly it comes to light that she is a rotten she-devil, please excuse that term, but it explains what I mean better than anything else I could say. When the truth came to me, I just wanted to murder her, I'm just out and out disgusted with life. I think I'll be a woman hater for life. Can you blame me.

C. R. S.

DEAR BOY:

I know without being told that you are young and experienced. Your heart ache is not unusual, it is an every day occurrence. Many others have been disappointed. Your situation is partially your fault. What right had you to create an impeccable lad out of human clay. You surely have no right to take ones life because they do not measure up to your standard. And as far as your isolating yourself and being a woman hater, that is very puerile and absurd. Take people at their face value.

FANNY LOU.

FOLLOW THE WORLD OF SPORT
THRU THE RECORDER COLUMNSCHICAGO PREPARES FOR RECORD THROG AT GREAT
TUSKEGEE-WILBERFORCE GAME

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(By Lem Stuart for The Associated Negro Press) — "F-i-g-h-t, — T-u-s-k-e-e-e!" — "H-o-l-d 'e-m, — Wilberforce!"

Cheers! — Songs! — Yells! — the wildest college noise-making Chicago ever heard in all its history will echo in great Soldier field stadium on Saturday afternoon, October 26, when the biggest mob of people that ever saw a colored college football game anywhere in the world watches championship Tuskegee battle scrapping Wilberforce.

The first colored college football game ever staged on Soldier field is coming here October 26 and alumni of both schools are already "red-hot."

Tuskegee fights Wilberforce here, the greatest football game in all the history of colored athletics will soon be on — and Tuskegee grads and Wilberforce grads are all up in arms.

Cheer meetings are being planned, mass meetings are being arranged, "pop meetings" are being arranged. Old Tuskegee men who had almost forgotten how to cheer are rushing together now to practice the old college yells. Wilberforce alumni who haven't "hollered" for a football team in many a day are dusting off the ancient yell-books to see how the old cheers go.

Wilberforce alumni and Tuskegee alumni are both up in arms, and the whole South side and west side, too, will soon be echoing to the cheers of both schools. The two alumni clubs are going to whoop it up in mammoth mass meetings and get-togethers, and make the Welkin ring with old Wilberforce and Tuskegee songs and cheers.

It is even rumored that Wilberforce is planning to steal a march on Tuskegee by having the Wilberforce cheer leader, with two of his assistants, leave the Ohio university more than a week before the game, and steal into Chicago to rehearse the old grads on the very latest novelties and newest wrinkles in Wilberforce cheers and songs. For Wilberforce is noted for its snappy songs. If Wilberforce rooters get away with what rumor says, then Soldier field stadium will really hear some yelling when October 26 rolls around.

And as for Tuskegee! No Tuskegee team in all history ever had the reputation that will be given the scrapping outfit from down in "Bam" when they step off the train here in Chicago.

When that Championship Tuskegee football team sets foot on Soldier field, the greatest organized cheering section that has ever backed a Tuskegee team in the whole history of the school will greet it. The initial yelling that Demon Stevenson and his fighting charges will get when they hit that stadium for the first warm-up will be the wildest and most enthusiastic welcome that ever swelled up for a visiting team here.

Tuskegee Chicagoans have sworn it. Already they've banded together their whole strength, and formed plans to land every Tuskegee sympathizer inside that mammoth Tuskegee cheering section.

Wilberforce and Tuskegee alumni both have made arrangements for the grads of the schools in suburban towns, and from as far away as Gary and Hammond and down-state cities, to unite with the Chicago Alumni clubs for October 26. In Evanston, in Waukegan, and in the North Shore towns, the Tuskegee and Wilberforce former students and sympathizers are being rounded up. Big social get-togethers are planned to put new life in both alumni associations.

Two colored universities, two of the greatest schools in the country — are sending their football teams to Chicago. Both Wilberforce and Tuskegee have fighting eleven's — both grads can be proud of. They battled each other to a tie last year. Both teams will be up here on October 26, farther from home than any two colored football teams have ever travelled for a football game in all the history of colored athletics. And the alumni in both schools have sworn, thereto, that no return will be left unturned to see that the boys get a warm welcome.

ROBERT BALL, CHICAGO GOLF
STAR, WINS PROFESSIONAL
GOLF TITLE AT SHADY REST

WESTFIELD, N. J., Sept. 22.—Playing brilliant golf and setting a new record for the Shady Grove course here, Robert Ball of Chicago, considered by many the peer of colored golfers, won the national professional championship with a total of 284 strokes, six less than his nearest opponent, at the end of 72 holes of medal play.

Frank Gaskin of Philadelphia retained his amateur crown by defeating a worthy opponent, Elmer Brent of New York, 2 and 1, in the final round. Gaskin played a consistent game devoid of thrills, and was able to overcome an advantage of 2 holes which his opponent had on him at the end of the ninth. Brent played par golf during the first half of the match, annexing a brilliant eagle on the last hole out. Soon after that he got the worst of the breaks, became unsteady and blew his lead.

To capture the amateur diadem for the second consecutive year, Gaskin had to eliminate a stellar field of golfers, which included James McCoy of New York, finalist in the Fairview Open tournament and Augustus Tanksby of Philadelphia.

Two flights were listed for the amateurs, the division being determined by the scores made in the qualifying round. Warren Vinston of Philadelphia defeated Dr. John R. Anderson of New York 4 and 3 for titular honors in the second flight. Others who played impressively in this division were Leonard Kenerly of New York and Frank Fields at Washington, D. C.

Elmer Stout of Newark, a professional who was at home amid the traps and billy hazards of this course throughout the tournament and was Ball's most serious threat. He entered the third round one stroke behind, but evened the count and forged ahead to a two-stroke advantage in the penultimate round.

Ball who had previously shattered the record for the course with a 67, returned in the afternoon and amassed a number of birdies or a 6 to capture the lead with a total of 284. The scores of the first five leaders were as follows:

Robert Ball, Chicago, 284; Elmer Stout, Newark, 290; Lewis Corbin, Bermuda, 294; Beltran Barker, Washington, D. C., 299 and Robert Peddy, Montclair, 303.

WHERE TUSKEGEE BATTLES WILBERFORCE IN CHICAGO

Chicago's Soldier Field stadium, largest and most magnificent of all America's football playing fields, will be the scene of the greatest football game ever played between two colored universities, when the championship eleven of Tuskegee Institute, all the way from Alabama, clashes with the scrappy Wilberforce university team there, on October 26. The last Saturday in October will be a red letter day on the colored sport calendar, with football fans and social leaders from all parts of the country journeying to Chicago, to witness the greatest football classic of the generation. Railroads have been called upon to offer reduced rates from every large midwestern city for the mammoth sport spectacle, and the largest crowd that has ever cheered a colored college football game in the United States will be present at the kick-off. Chicago society is all a-flutter with excitement at the coming of the great classic. Plans for dinner-dances, tea dances, luncheons and receptions all during "Game Week," are already being formed, and the week of October 26 in Chicago will have all the crowd activity of a Derby week in Louisville. When Tuskegee and Wilberforce last met, the score at the end of the bitterly fought game stood at a 6 to 6 tie, so a gruelling play-off is looked for.

This stadium has the largest seating capacity of any in the world. It was here that 143,000 people gathered to witness the Tunney-Dempsey battle. The Army-Navy grid game attracted 120,000 and the Notre Dame-Southern California game drew 110,000.

Talladega Prepares
For Grid Grind

TALLADEGA, Ala., Sept. 20.—

When the whistle blew Tuesday morning, Sept. 19, to call out the Crimson Tornado for pre-season football practice, head coach of football, Theodore "Ted" Wright and Assistant Coach Reginald "Reggie" Talbot, were answered by almost half the whole number invited to report for early practice. Some who could not report that first day are continuing to come in so that by the beginning of next week the entire pre-season squad should be complete.

Among the old men reporting are Captain Garner, Askew, Porter, Big Jake Simmons, Pizom, McCord and Bull Noy. The new men include Nolan, a fleet half from Lincoln High school, Kansas City, Mo., who is already revving around the field like a frisky calf; Wright, also from Lincoln's high, now doing 50 and 55 yards with his boot, and Speed of Method, N. C., who, regardless of what Shakespeare said about names could not run so fast if he had any other name. They are getting two sessions daily with great emphasis on the fundamentals of the game.

Said Coach Wright, "The boys are working hard and showing a fine response. It's going to take spirit and I believe they have it. Talladega will have one of the greatest fighting machines in this part of the country. That's all I will say now."

Tuskegee Prepares For Football Season

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., Sept. 22.—That forward and later passes will play a large part in the offense of the Tuskegee football team this season was indicated in the development of the past week, when at all practice sessions the coaches laid particular stress in this method of attack.

Junna Bolla, famous British W.

Indian rugby international, reported at Washington field and immediately inaugurated intensive drill among the backfield candidates in the use of the lateral pass. Johnson, West, Stevenson, Weaver, Wylie and Harris have all shown unusual skill in the tossing of lateral passes and have made rapid strides under Bolla's direction. Johnson, a new man, West, a freshman, from Booker Washington High school, of Tulsa, Okla., and Perkins, a freshman, from Cleveland, Tenn., have been playing fine football since the pre-season practice started and are making a strong bid for regular berths in the backfield.

Shanklin, the great find of last year, has been playing havoc with the varsity line and it is possible that the coaches may use him as the key man in a backfield composed of Shanklin, Stevenson, Johnson and Woolridge.

Henry Harrison, the great plunging back of last year, is gradually rounding into form.

Brooks, who was rushed into the breach after the injury of Champion, regular center, last year, has been shifted to tackle, where he will have ample opportunity to use his six feet two inches in height, and 190 pounds to the best advantage. Wright, third team center last year, has been shifted to reserve guard. This leaves Champion and Camp to wage a merry battle for center, but it is too early as yet to indicate what the choice of the coaches will be.

With seemingly good backfield material, other than at quarter, the chief task of the coaches during the next two weeks will be the development of a forward line.

lineup could be counted on to hit in a pinch—and they invariably did this, hence, so many wins in close games.

After Flag in 1930

According to a statement made for the press just before departing for exhibition games in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, Manager Rogan of the Monarchs said: "I am going right back next season after another championship, and if our pitchers hold up we are sure to win. We have a real ball club, about the best in the country, and we should win without any too much competition. My only hope is that the other clubs of the loop will add strength to their clubs so that we can enjoy the race."

Grid Stars
Join Ranks Of
Ala. Teachers

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 22.—

Although the opening football practice here at the Alabama State Teachers college was called again to begin exactly two weeks ahead of the formal academic program, three elevens of grid candidates for the 1929 Edition of the Fernet answered the call of Coaches Gaston F. Lewis and Howard L. Johnson on Tuesday, and were being treated to some honest-to-goodness scrimmage before the week of early morning and afternoon practice sessions ended today.

Football prospects at Alabama State have brightened considerably during this first week of practice. From the 1928 squad were Alternate Capt. Major Brown, Bolden, Edmond Hall, Jenkins Johnson, Henry Williams, Alfonso Campbell, Wesley Thomas, Drake, Lowe, Walton, Burns, Frank Lewis and the Frazier Bros. From the 1927 squad were former Capt. William Anderson and Ivemory Johnson. Among the newcomers were a promising quartet of recent high school graduates from Evanston, Illinois. During the coming week such other veterans as Capt. Garrick Hardy, William Cogger, Elsie Campbell, Edgar Wilson, Booker Lindsay, Atkins Collins, Javolt Dent, Eddie Murray, Arthur Fuller, A. D. Brown and Jeff Boyd will be donning their grid for another season's grind.

Among the heavy promising newcomers stated to arrive next week are: Edward Payne and George Holson of Greensboro; John D. Harris of Corona; Ramon Oden, Jesse Minor, Mertis Deans and James Robinson of Birmingham; Jackson Abrams of Selma; Ben Moore of Talladega; John Henry Martin of Buford; Reuben Gregory of Greenville, Miss.; Edward Sledge of Demopolis and another quartet of recent star graduates from out-of-state high schools.

With the institutions just starting its four-year teachers' college program, with extensive improvements in the physical facilities and with contracts just awarded for two more elaborate buildings, Alabama State is intent upon having associated with this epochal year one of the best football teams in its Athletic history. Southeastern Conference season when the Hornets meet the 24th Infantry soldiers here at Patterson field on September 27 and then will coin another niche in the hall of Southern Athletic Promotion a week later when she stages the first night football game here at Cramton bowl on Friday night October 4th, with Florida A. & M. college.

HAMPTON HAS BIG GRID
SCHEDULE—HOWARD, VIRGINIA,
LINCOLN, SEASON'S BEST

By CHARLES H. WILLIAMS.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE. — The Management of the Hampton Institute Athletic association has completed all arrangements for the 1929 football schedule which fans believe to be one of the hardest and most interesting ever tackled by the Seabirds.

The season opens with Howard university at Hampton on October 5. This will be the first time in 5 years that the two schools have met on the gridiron. In the past, the Howard-Hampton games were characterized by hard, brilliant playing with the finest spirit of sportsmanship. So close were many of the contests that the winner often emerged in the closing moments of play, with the spectators reaching the highest pitch of excitement. The games this year is hardly expected to be any exception. With her reorganization of her coaching staff, the employment of a new head coach, and an abundance of material on hand, Howard is expected to have one of the best elevens on the field this fall.

Syd Pollock's Havana Red Sox, who are touring Kentucky and Arkansas this week, with Oklahoma and Texas as their stamping grounds, next, were praised by New Jersey sport editors, when they took the second game and series from the East Orange club, defeating Frank Talcott, former Yale college star hurler, by a 2 to 0 score.

"The Red Sox have a pair of records," says the Jersey item, "as a result of making a clean sweep of their two-game series with East Orange, the strongest white club in the East. Earlier in the season the Red Sox whipped the home club by a 10 to 5 score, which stands as the only decisive victory marked against the Orangers this season, while the 2 to 0 verdict represents the only game this year in which East Orange was forced to pack up their bats without having had the satisfaction of scoring a run."

The Lincoln Giants lost a 11 to 3 verdict to the East Orange nine last Saturday, while Alexandro Pomer's Cuban Stars received a 15 to 3 wallop at the hands of the Orangers nine. The Havana Red Sox feel proud of their showing throughout the east this season and look forward to sweeping the south; playing championship series' games with Fort Worth, Texas, winners of the second half of the T. O. L. League circuit, commencing Saturday, September 28th.

Our city's school trustees have decided to erect a up-to-date modern school building next spring for colored children. It will fill a long felt want. It is not likely that it will be erected at the present site. This old dilapidated building when removed will be a good thing to bad rubble. Credit is largely due to Prof. Walter Fort, which ever since he has been here has worked with untiring efforts to bring about this result. Prof. Fort is a first-class teacher and believes the children should have a first-class building.

Our city's school trustees have decided to erect a up-to-date modern school building next spring for colored children. It will fill a long felt want. It is not likely that it will be erected at the present site. This old dilapidated building when removed will be a good thing to bad rubble. Credit is largely due to Prof. Walter Fort, which ever since he has been here has worked with untiring efforts to bring about this result. ## ATTUCKS OPENS WITH LARGE STUDENT BODY

By GABRIEL STANLEY

When Crispus Attucks high school opened its doors for business Monday, officials of that institution experienced an unprecedentedly large influx of not only old but entirely new students.

In other words, what really greeted Attucks' teachers was an overflow of students that packed the capacity of the lobby to such an extent that Principal Nolcox was at a complete loss for a time at least, to find accommodation for so extraordinarily large a crowd. However, the situation which was a rather acute one at the beginning of things, Monday, has since been adjusted as satisfactorily as possible pending further arrangements.

A recent investigation has revealed the fact that School No. 17 which was especially remodeled for the purpose, has been turned over to and is now a definite part of Attucks.

According to Mr. Nolcox, Attucks' principal, the first floor of what once was School No. 17, will soon be a busy buzzing center of mechanical training attractions. For the machine shop, the carpenter shop, the wood work and sheet iron department and electric shop will be the rule at old 17 from now on.

The second floor of the building will be given over to the academic classes.

"We are hoping," said Nolcox, "that our shop work will all take on a definite shape in that the departments will be fully equipped."

"You might mention," said the educator, "that the auto shop in the main building will be enlarged and that the former wood work shop will be converted into a large chemical laboratory."

Work on the proposed Crispus Attucks athletic field back of the school building, will soon be started, according to information obtained on the subject.

Adelaide Hall Returns To Harlem

PARIS, France, Sept. 20.—(DNB)—After two and one half months at the Moulin Rouge in Paris, Adelaide Hall and most of the members of the No. 1 company of Lew Leslie's "Blackbirds," arrived in Harlem last Thursday morning. Because of the overcrowded conditions aboard the steamships bound for the States this time of the year, several of the company's personnel had to take a later vessel. After a few days at home, this company will begin rehearsals to open for a run in Chicago.

The No. 2 company of "Blackbirds," headed by Harriett Caloway, began this week at Shubert's Riviera theatre, after playing for three weeks in and around New York City. The tremendous success of "Blackbirds" last season for more than a year on Broadway was accorded the unanimous endorsement of the metropolitan critics, and is still quoted as a basis for comparison of the efforts of other producers.

HONEY BROWN GOING GOOD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(DNB)—Those who saw Miller and Lyles' musical vehicle, "Keep Shuffling," probably recall the sensational hit lass, Honey Brown, and her scorching dance. The girl made quite an impression and it's not surprising that when King Vidor began casting for the sepien flicker "Hallelujah," he selected her to take the part of the trill vamp lead. Honey traveled out to the coast, where a series of tests were made. Her voice and personality registered above the average, but there was too much electricity in her feet for the slow walk required and reluctantly the official thumbs were pointed down. And then the sad story drifted from the coast that Honey had collapsed, developed pneumonia and shortly afterwards came the news of her death. Her husband, Buck Taylor, grief-stricken, attempted to kill Vidor in a fit of rage, it is said, during which he accused the director of having mistreated Miss Brown. It was a pathetic case, told those who knew the sunny-smiled girl and her genial husband, were heartbroken. All of which, of course, you have heard before. What drives the story to its prominent position, is that Honey Brown danced at the Lafayette theatre a few weeks ago and is still smiling her way around Harlem, while her husband, who does not even recall meeting Vidor, is one of the waiters who accept tips at the popular Lenox club.

WILL HAYS BARS PLAY WITH RACE PRIEST IN CAST

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Sept. 22.—(ANP)—The failure of Gloria Swanson's latest picture, "Queen Kelly," to reach the theatres of the country is at last explained. The much-heralded film sensation was banned by Will Hays, czar of the movies, because one of the prominent figures in the story was a colored priest. Hays, according to the well-authenticated rumors flying around the "lots," objected strenuously to the black priest saying, it is reported, that such an appearance on the screen would affront thousands of devout religious followers and white audiences. Whether Mr. Hays, who hails from Indiana and is a Presbyterian elder, as well as a former chairman of the Republican National committee, knows there are many Negro priests was not explained. He probably would be still more shocked to learn that many foreigners believe Christ to have been a black man. The picture was directed by Eric Von Stroheim, the famous director of "Foolish Wives," and "The Merry Widow," who is said to believe in strict realism.

PARENTS TAKE SCHOOL CASE TO BOARD

By GABRIEL STANLEY

With Attorney R. L. Bailey acting as their special representative, twelve Negro families met with the Indianapolis School board last week.

The thing uppermost in the minds of these families, all parents of colored pupils that were turned away like so many intruders from the doors of School 43, last week was what was the school board going to do about it. The children, all former students of the school in question, were refused admittance to the latter without due notice being given their parents. It is alleged. The latter circumstance is clearly in the category of being so grossly wrong that it is scarcely believable.

Observers say that such an act, if true, is not only the sum total result of race prejudice and its iniquitous agencies, but an im-

BAPTISTS' ALLIANCE STARTS SOON

According to official announcement the Baptist Ministerial Alliance will resume its regular weekly meetings and other activities, Monday, Oct. 7, with a record-breaking attendance at its Second Baptist church headquarters on West Michigan St.

The Rev. G. L. Lillard is president of the Alliance with the Rev. F. F. Young as treasurer and the Rev. Geo. Baltimore, corresponding secretary.

Plans for the reassembly of the pastors, after a recess that covered a period of several weeks, are now being formulated with a view of making the occasion a highly interesting and memorable one.

Combined with the coming Baptist Ministers program will be what is being described as a monster echo meeting from the state and national conventions and associations.

According to officials, the occasion will be enlivened to no small degree by many Sunday school representatives fresh from the conventions, who will address the reassembled ministers on topics of vast import and interest to the denomination.

udent slap and the nation's fundamental law and what it has to say about tampering with the constitutional rights of American citizens.

Another undeniable fact about the circumstance is that to refuse the children admittance to the school house is to deny them of an education! This is against the laws of Indiana.

The parents wanted to know whether the school board ever thought of this fact and what body proposed to do about the important matter of their children's education since they were not allowed to enter the neighborhood school.

It was decided by the board to refer the subject to the superintendent of schools and chairman of the committee of the building and grounds committee for the purpose of taking care of the Negro children that were refused admittance to school 43. In the meanwhile the pupils are attending school 42, transportation to which is being furnished by the school board.

Guy Nicholson, mechanic, Atkins Saw Works, Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I suffered from a kidney disorder that was hindering the during working hours. I could hardly bend my back as the pains were very severe. I used many of the well known remedies with no results. My brother recommended Argray tablets. I used four bottles of Argray tablets. I am now entirely relieved of all pains, kidney and bladder trouble. I now sleep all night without being disturbed."
